REPORT NO.

- 1. His Yok Kao, younger brother of His Mui Kao (YI Mei-hou)*, is officially registered with the Thai Immigration Department as a guarantor for Chinese immigrants. At one time His Yok Kao invited officials of the Immigration Department to a dinner at Hus Peng Restaurant, Yawarst. He has not had contact with the Immigration Department since March 1950.
- 2. Immigration officials believe that Hia Yok Mao may have been responsible for the news, reported in Kiatisak on 7 May 1950, of a Peiping radio broadcast which criticized Thai Immigration authorities for mistreatment of Chinese in their custody. According to the Peiping broadcast, one Chinese died and another attempted to commit suicide because of the hardships suffered in a Thai Immigration Department internment camp. Immigration officials state that this report is substantially correct and that Hia Yok Kao would be in a position to acquire this information.
- 3. His Yok Kao is now secretary-general of the Kwong Sew Foundation, which is near the Patanakorn Theater and the Black and White Photography Shop on New Road, Bangkok. His Yok Kao and his brother are the proprietors of the photography shop.
